The Mariner Volume VII

Homer L. Ferguson
High School

Newport News
Virginia

White light passes
through a prism,
dividing the rays
into the colors of the Spectrum—
developing each color each separate wave length—revealing the beauty and the fascination
of color.

Thus the memories of Ferguson pass through the covers of this book,
the entire image
being divided into the separate components—each developed
to its highest intensity.
This year the Mariner
presents the colors of another year—
The Spectrum of 1968.

The many varied activities produced by the students for themselves
 The excitement and anticipation of Student Life
 the activities of the students outside of the faculty and the curriculum
 composing the school itself the purpose for the school—
 Academics
 The noise and laughter
 filling the halls
 the sounds of joys and sorrows
 the soul and the spirit at Ferguson—
 its students
 their activities in Organizations and Sports and the link with the community through

Highlights of a year at Ferguson.
The Spectrum
shines its rays
in all directions
featuring memories of Homecoming,
Miss Mariner,
and the many plays
and productions
given at Ferguson.
Student Life—
the widest spectrum
and one in which all participate.
This is the student at work
in their leisure
and in enjoyment.
The rays of light are the most colorful
and the memories
most precious.

Autumn

Summer fades
 and
 classes resume
 once again
 Teachers meet students and new friendships
 are established
 Homecoming—
 a cheer from the crowd and Susan receives her crown
 The curtain rises
 on the opening night of "Girl Crazy"
 Football season begins
 the stadium empties—
 the crowd surges
 down onto the field
 before the Warwick Game Clubs organize and difficulties are overcome A leaf falls
 days grow shorter
 and the spectrum of life is manifested everywhere

The intrusion of Don Bazile (Jonny Lerner, Center) into the action makes Doctor Bartholo panic, while Figaro pulls strings to unite Count Almaviva, now disguised as a music teacher, with Rosine.

Barber Of Seville Famous French Farce Is Year's First Play

A sweltering stage—
at least 100 degrees,
An unusually small audience—financial disaster
The "versatile" Harvey
appearing as four characters.
Hard work during hot summer days
An elaborate set
Good comic routines,
Mr. Pirkle taking pictures And a final celebration at Shoney's
causing an unusual disturbance All went together for The Summer Drama Workshop's Production of
"THE BARBER OF SEVILLE"

Trying to lure her from hiding, Count Almaviva (Harvey Credle) serenades his lover as Figaro (Dale Ramsey) demonstrates the Count's chances of success.

The wicked Doctor Bartholo (Roger Cawthon) attempts to uncover a plot as he dives for a note that Rosine (Virginia Fitzhugh) has dropped for the Count.

Homecoming Susan Redding Reigns Over 1967-'68 Homecoming

September twenty-ninth excitement runs high and everyone watches and waits.
It's half time—
the team leaves the field and the princesses take their place at the fifty yard line.
Mud and no cars—
The crowd awaits
the announcement.
The 1967-1968 Homecoming Queen—MISS SUSAN REDDING!
The crowd screams—
a crown, red roses
and tears.
Patrick Henry
defeated 20-0
and a queen reigns.
The dance—
Grecian columns
and the end of Another wonderful Homecoming.

Susan Redding, Homecoming Queen, and her escort Keeler Abbitt enjoy the spotlight of the queen's dance.

Spirit Spirit Prevails At Ferguson In '67-'68

A bell—
and students file into the gym excitement and tension run high
The band plays
and the majorettes perform The contest between classes and the spirit pennant
A bugle blows
and the crowd yells
"Charge"
The fight song begins
and the cheerleaders
throw
miniature footballs
whether a win or an occasional loss
the Mariners enthusiastically display their pride in F.H.S.

"One, two, three, exercise" chant Keyettes in skit to overcome King Crah.

"M-A-R-I-N-E-R-S, We're the hest of all of the rest . . ." sing enthusiastic students.

Students surge on to field in hurst of school spirit to cheer their team on before Warwick game.

Mighty Mariner, Jon Gamache, and Spirit Mohile add variety to Friday afternoon pep assembly.

Ferguson students try desperately to catch the footballs thrown by the cheerleaders during half time.

Johnny Churchill, portrayed by Rodney Martin, campaigns for Sheriff of Custerville.

Zoli (John Rouse) argues with the villains Doc Parkhurst (Bruce Knox) and Snake Eyes (Harvey Credle).

Johnny is up in the air over his girl Molly.

"Girl Crazy"

Fall Musical Stars Rodney Martin

Opening night!
and Susie has a toothache tension and excitement mount the people are coming in and Rodney can't find his red handkerchief
or Pattie's beads.
"Girl Crazy"
Everyone running around trying to make ready
the lights dim—
"Embraceable You"
"But Not For Me"
then the applause
and the curtain call Another big success!
all the work and time put into it
climaxed
by an outstanding performance Relief! and sadness . . .
because it's over.

Winter

December—
 colder weather and Winter.
 A special Christmas spirit and the thrill of the Hallelujah chorus.
 The first snow falls.
 Vacation—then
 the dreaded return to school with exams looming ahead Basketball
 The Mighty Mariner Mat Machine—the thrill of winning and the swallowing of pride at a loss.
 The Spectrum of Winter
 fades to shades of pastels as the cold air Subdues
 the brilliance of earlier days.

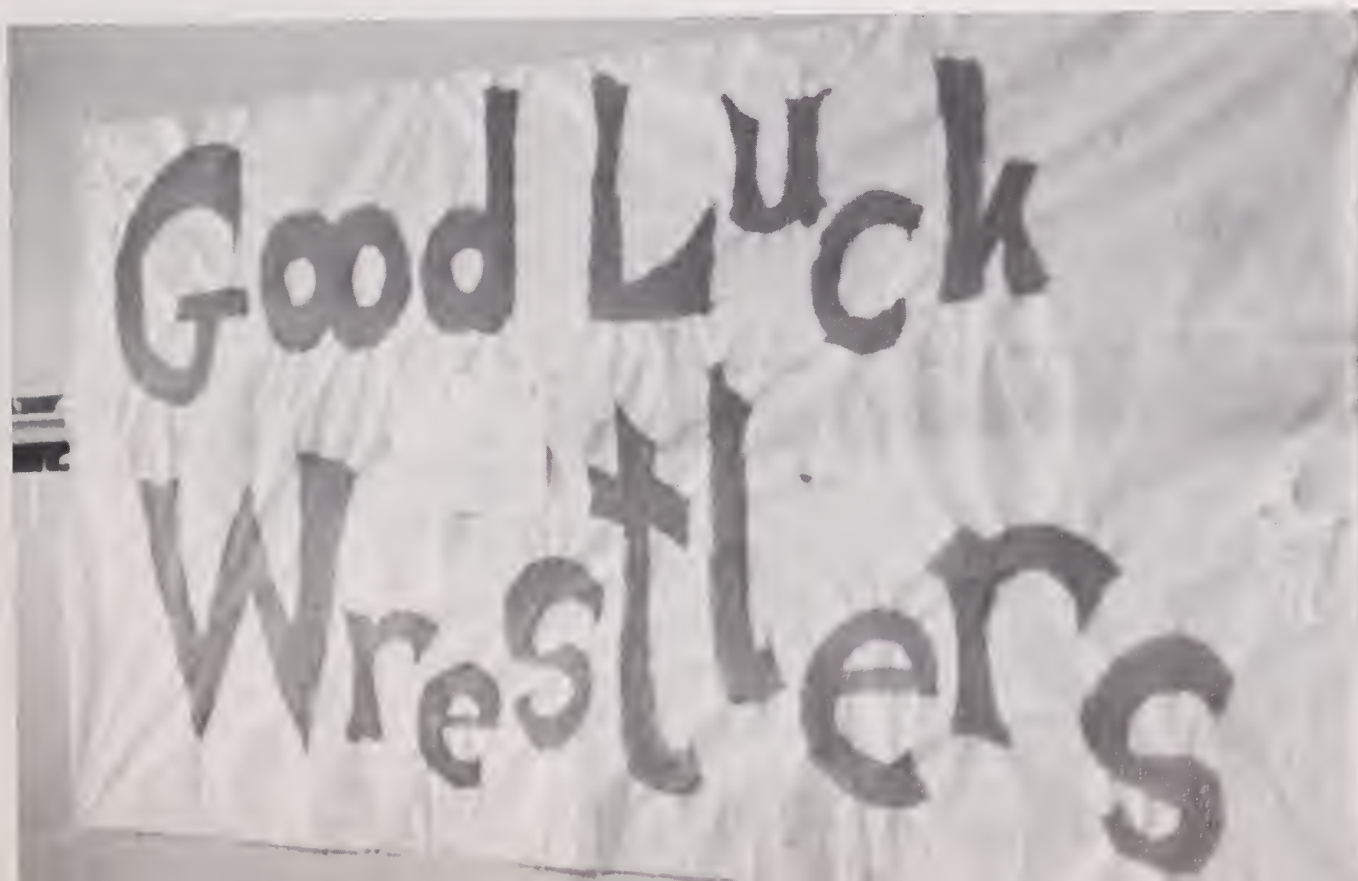

Trees spring up
 in the library
 and in the cafeteria Doors must be decorated but who will be on the committee?
 Teachers assigning homework over the holidays
 but realizing
 it won't get done Christmas carols
 played during lunchtime—or almost played,
 and the endless choir rehearsals for the long awaited Christmas Concert
 Signs of Christmas
 are everywhere
 and the spirit is high
 at Ferguson
 Going through the hall
 a student hums
 a carol
 and a special gift is given to a special person.

Homeroom 258 boasted the winning door in the school-wide Christmas contest.

Sign wishes wrestlers good luck at the state tournament.

Freshmen contemplate the choices before casting their ballots for the 1968-1969 SCA officers.

For the last time Seniors vote in the annual SCA elections.

Newly installed SCA officers are Jay Taylor, Pres.; Doc Garnett, Vice-Pres.; Anne Cowardin, Sec.; Susie Deazley, Treas.; Martha Webb, Rep't.; Blake Spears, Parl.; and Laura Leigh Adams, Chap.

SCA Elections

Students Elect Taylor As SCA President

Campaigning,
planning and formulating a platform
all the hard work
in running for the SCA 1968 confronts the student body
with a choice between
"Mission: Possible" and
"The Spirit of F.H.S."
the voters
chose Jay Taylor to head
them for
'68-'69
and new goals
are set for Ferguson's S.C.A.

One Acts

One Act Plays Include Theater Of The Absurd

Eight o'clock sharp and the curtain rises
on Ferguson's
Night of One-Acts
a night of experimentation and new techniques in theater
moving the audience
from auditorium
to cafeteria
and the Theater-of-the-Round three plays
"Thirty Minutes in a Street"
"The Narrenschneiden" and "The Lesson"
providing entertainment for an evening
well-spent.

Dale Ramsey (right) confers with his nurse Wendy Townsend about his patient in the "Narrenschneiden".

Wendy Townsend gasps at the atrocious condition of Harvey Credle in the "Narrenschneiden".

Patty Henry attempts to secure her falling slip while Rodney Martin (second from left) ponders a mathematical equation in "Thirty Minutes in a Street".

Tommy Abbott (right) questions priest Bob Steiner regarding a house number in "Thirty Minutes in a Street".

Powderpuff Basketball Sophomores Capture Powderpuff Victory

Tired girls
continuous practices
and learning
strategy
the patient coaches
holding their
tempers in trying to create a good team
the mighty sophomores
shine on the twenty-second of March
and the determined Freshmen vow
to win next year.

Despite the blocking efforts of the Sophomores, Freshman Leslie Alexander shoots in hopes of gaining two more points.

Backed by their attractive and spirited cheerleaders, Freshmen appear optimistic about their chances of winning.

Sophomores Sharon Dingledein and Julie Montgomery struggle to keep Freshmen Lynn McArthur from getting the ball.

Freshmen tried hard to keep possession of the ball in the close battle between the teams.

Steve Yates keeps the audience laughing with his Bill Cosby impersonations.

Shegay Ooka displays a traditional Japanese sword dance.

Stunt Nite Students Display Various Talents In Stunt Nite

Friday the twenty-seventh of March—and Ferguson's traditional Stunt Night
The Smothers Brothers
introducing (but everyone knows
it was only Rodney and Tommy) Sheegay doing a sword demonstration
and the cheerleader's routine satire, a poetry reading, technical troubles
and finally—
the teacher's skit,
the North-wind forgetting his cue,
the audience with tears of laughter
rolling down their faces, and the climax at the appearance of Bonnie and Clyde Stunt Night—
THE SCA's best yet.

The Crossroad Singers harmonize in their version of "Maria".

A pompon routine is performed by the Varsity Cheerleaders to "Music to Watch Girls By".

Spring

Hot days come
 but not quite soon enough students begin to get restless and spring fever sets in The colors of the Spectrum come alive
 and the spotlight colors dance yellow and red Spring!
 and Seniors think of the prom
 Senior play day and Graduation Everyone begins the chore of studying for exams or putting off studying and the anticipation of summer is overwhelming
 The Spectrum of Ferguson shines—
 for the last time in the year of 1968
 and the last time
 at all for Seniors
 The end of another year and the Spectrum turns its beam to the future.

Mariner Band
and the Cadet Band
with a performance at intermission
by the drum and fife corps and finally the long-awaited crowning of the Band Sweetheart—Lou Maddox
with a reception afterward in her honor
with the band room decorated and Lou on her throne—a thrilling moment for everyone.

Miss Mariner

Pat Humme Wins Title Of 1968 Miss Mariner

Rehearsals
every night the week before
practicing—
getting props straight and smoothing out
technical difficulties
The Miss Mariner Pageant—the tension
of performing before
the judges
and the excitement of announcing the finalists
Miss Mariner—
all the work
and rushing around
for gifts and food for the reception
all highlighted by crowning Miss Mariner 1968—
Miss Pat Humme

PATRICIA LAWRY HUMME—1968 Miss Mariner

Miss Mariner, Pat Humme is seated upon her throne surrounded by second runner-up, Anita Edge, and first runner-up Anna Ruth Richards.

Twenty contestants anxiously awaiting the announcement of the semi-finalists are Anita Edge, Karen Taylor, Susan Sheppard, Julie Bryant, Sherry Pepper, Pat Humme, Margie Turbyfill, Ginger Woodward, Susan Redding, Lou Maddox, Anna Ruth Richards, Janet Flournoy, Judy Gallagher, Lynn Cole, Betsy Love, Pam Humme, Holly Hartman, Becky Hopkins, Linda Rayfield, Judy McClellan.

Master of Ceremonies, James E. Pirkle, adds humor and excitement to the 1968 Miss Mariner Pageant.

The five finalists, Julie Bryant, Anita Edge, Pat Humme, Susan Redding, and Anna Ruth Richards await the judges' decision.

"My Babes! My Babes!" cries Pat Humme, sponsored by the Thespians, in her dramatic scene from the Greek tragedy Medea.

AFS contestant Anna Ruth Richards displays her talent by both singing and playing a medley of songs about the "blues".

With a smile on her face Anita Edge, sponsored by the Freshman class, completes another of her fantastic gymnastic stunts.

Art work and a modern dance combine to make up the talent of Susan Redding from the Varsity Cheerleaders.

Talent Presented To Public And Judges For First Time Thursday

"No spinach" exclaims Julie Bryant, sponsored by the Junior Class, in her pantomime of Shirley Temple.

The faces of Anita Edge, Julie Bryant, Pat Humme, Betsy Love, Judy McClellan, Sherry Pepper, Linda Rayfield, Susan Redding, Anna Ruth Richards, and Margie Turbyfill light up with smiles at the announcement that they were the 10 semi-finalists.

Dale Ramsey, in the title role of Kellody, remarks on the strange atmosphere found on the S.S. Naptha.

"Kellody"

Spring Play Spotlights Artist Dale Ramsey

The spring play Ferguson's first original production
and not just one
but two broken zubas
The Spectrum now points to Dale Ramsey and—"Kellody"—
the largest turn-out ever
at Ferguson
with the author playing the title role
and designing the sets
opening night—
with a standing ovation and a demand
performance again on Monday
"Kellody"—
Ferguson's biggest success but who ever heard of a talking penguin?

Mr. Percy Marx, III (John Duberg) reprimands Charlie Woo Noon (Jay Taylor) for dropping his radio.

Dr. Relic (Harvey Credle) grieves over the loss of his "precious" Xuba during the world premier of "Kellody."

"Fanny, you saved my life" pants Captain Snabe (Roger Cawthon) to Terry Gooding after eating one of Pedro's hot tamales.

Dedication

Mrs. Gaw Receives Yearbook Dedication

Long hours of consultation and appointments
Discouraged students
problems and
schedule changes

Mrs. Gaw—
a friendly, familiar face to all Mariners,
someone who is always willing to listen and help.

Head of the Guidance Department.

Dean of Girls and a person
dedicated to students and their education

This year the MARINER staff proudly dedicates

the 1968 MARINER to a person very much a part of the Spectrum
at Ferguson—

MRS. CHARLOTTE H. GAW

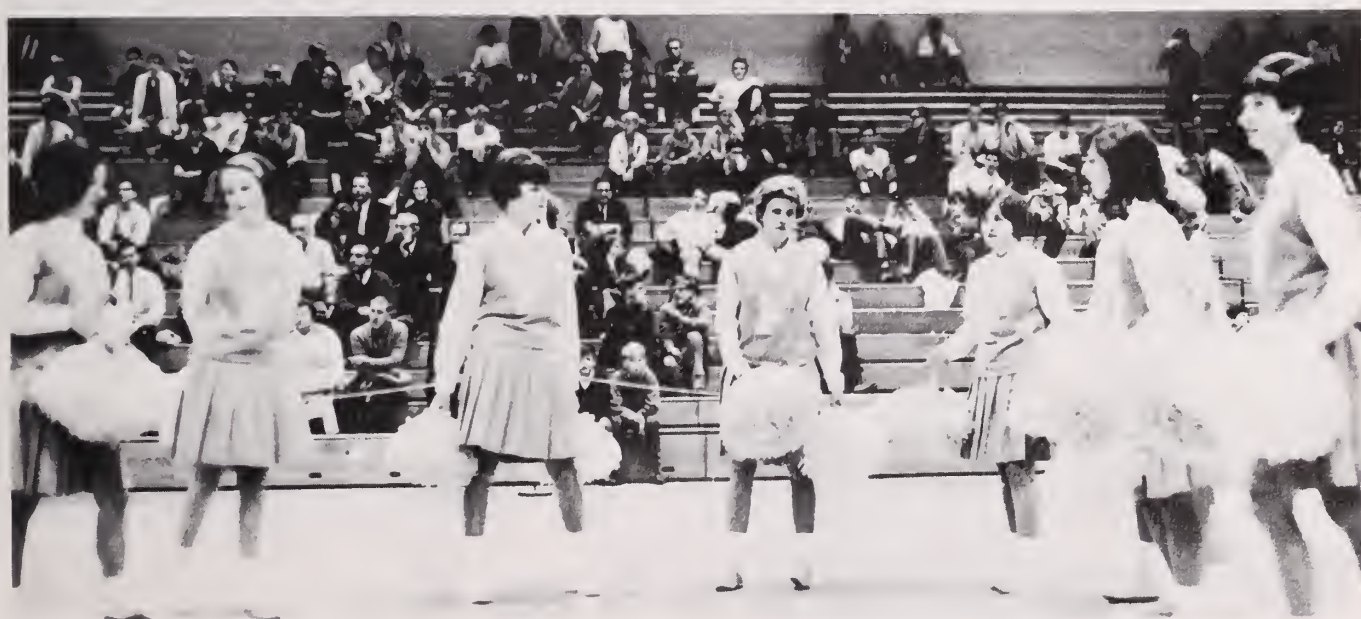

Serving as Dean of Girls, Mrs. Gaw also works with IBM, teachers, substitutes, and summer school.

As the waves of light separate
and the rays
become distinct
the first color
of the Spectrum of memories
comes into focus.
it is the color
of work—
of quiet classrooms
or heated discussions—
The memory of
tedious assignments,
teachers,
and studying—
Patience
Perseverance and Dedication combine
to form
the Memory—
Academics

Showing her continual dedication to Ferguson, Mrs. Passage enthusiastically cheers the Mariner team to victory.

Mrs. Passage wonders, "What will my students do next?"

Mrs. Mary L. Passage, Principal.

English Department Appreciation Is Key To English And Literature

English—
the subject that is always required . . .
every year

English is reading
The Prince and the Pauper, A Tale of Two Cities, and The Scarlet Letter

not to mention
studying swans and bulls English—

dangling and misplaced
modifiers,

split infinitives and phrases and clauses

Listening to records and films

learning to write
compositions and
endless vocabulary tests all a part of learning
a language,

and the communication
and understanding of its people.

Foreign Language Department

Oral Skills Are Stressed In Language Laboratory

A classroom full of confused students
and a strange sound
drifting out through the door.

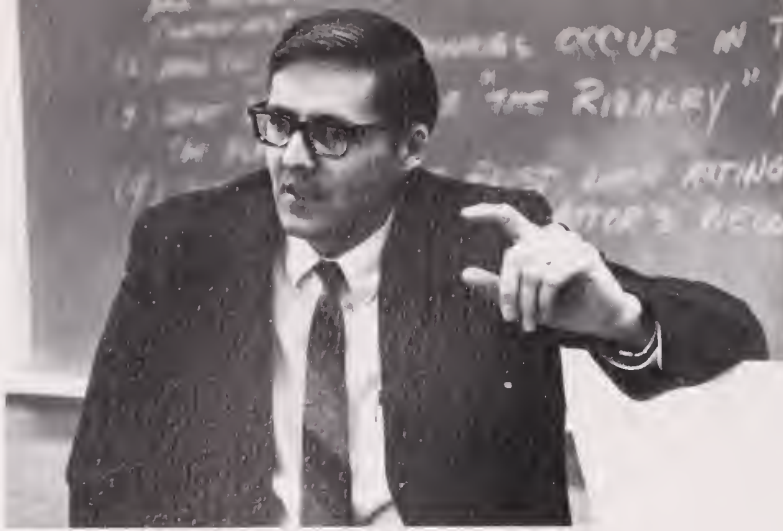

Foreign Languages—
an interesting undertaking and an enigma.
befuddled students and frustrated teachers teaching them that
"Omnis Gallia divisa est in partes tres."
and "J'entre dans la salle de classe."

All the rules and exceptions and learning that the Germans really do communicate in that language and why in the world the Spanish use an upside-down exclamation mark
learning about other people and at the same time about ourselves.

Classes

Entering high school and learning to become a part of it all

Choosing your friends—
the friends that you will associate with
for five years—

The Spectrum of classes shines on more than tangible achievements it spotlights emotions, feelings and the questioning

that come with growing up

The classes are
the school
and the body itself

Another year—
learning more than books can show

the tears,
the laughter,
living and growing up

The Spectrum shines
on the future—
the future of the student and of Ferguson

Sally Via Leads the Mighty Seniors

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS—Sally Via, President; Harvey Credle, Vice President; Susan Redding, Secretary; Ben Whitmer, Treasurer; Linda Runckel, Reporter; Billy Gill, Parliamentarian; Tina Jones, Historian.

Mrs. Taback, senior class sponsor, pauses to think back over the achievements of the Class of '68.

The last year of the long haul—1968 the most special year for one class in particular The seniors
anxiety about college and excitement about a new life but most of all—sadness at leaving the people who have become so much a part of your life so many memories and cherished moments
surrendered to time and the stone of the walls
Being a Senior—
the end of a special life and the beginning of a new one.

Six Outstanding Seniors Announced

RICHARD CHISHOLM KERNS

A warm smile
a friendly "hello"—
and the familiar face
of Sally Via—
Senior Class President for 1968
a member of National Honor Society
and winner of the DAR Citizenship Award
"Sally V."
voted friendliest girl in the Senior Class
a person always
willing to listen
and understand—
a leader
and in every way
an asset to Ferguson.

LOYD DENNIS RAWLS

The contagious laugh and always
the brunt of the practical jokes
yet sincere and genuine in his feelings
Ricky Kerns—
Reporter of the SCA
President of the Latin Club voted Best Personality of the Senior Class
and a member of the Key Club
Ricky's voice
heard in class,
in SCA Congress—
an opinion expressed
but always respect
for another's—
a scholar and a friend
one who truly deserves
the title of Outstanding Senior.

ROSELLEN RANDOLPH VIA

Salutatorian of his class
National Merit Scholar and SCA chaplain
Loyd Rawls—
outstanding in forensics and an active debater—
a person always
willing to help
and always doing
an excellent job
an editorial in the "Windjammer"
or an announcement
over the P.A.—
an outstanding
person, scholar, and leader—
and definitely an outstanding Senior.

In Academics Awards Assembly

CHRISTINA ALPHA JONES

A grape soda, a moonpie and the voice and
smiling face of Jimmy Brown—
quarterback for the Ferguson football squad leading the Mariners through their most successful year
a member of the Key Club
and serving as SCA Treasurer
a member of the
A Cappella choir
receiving the most well-rounded student award from
Mr. Auby—
a student proving himself with everyone at Ferguson.

ANNA RUTH RICHARDS

A clang of a cowbell
at a football game
and a blue and white striped scarf
the most school spirited girl in the Senior Class Tina Jones—
a member of the
Vice President of AFS and Senior Class Historian
representing Ferguson in Germany in the AFS program
as well as serving
the school
in any way she can—a smiling face
around the halls and a willingness to help
setting a good example for her classmates.

JAMES MEREDITH BROWN

The sounds of the blues fill
the auditorium
and Anna Ruth is chosen first runner-up in the Miss Mariner Pageant
applause—
and the familiar face
of Anna Ruth Richards
a member of NHS and the A Cappella choir—
serving in the AFS as well as participating in “Girl Crazy”— proving herself
a well-rounded Senior.

The hard work of the Juniors is climaxed by serving at the Prom on June 1.

A poppy field adds to the atmosphere of scenes from the Wizard of Oz.

Prom theme of Emerald Reflections is carried out even in the refreshments.

Senior Prom

“Emerald Reflections”

Honors Seniors

Up the steps—
but duck your head
and the scene
opens out on “Emerald Reflections”
down the yellow brick road across the bridge
and through the field of poppies—
Charlie McClendon and the Magnificents
playing “The Horse” and the castle for the King and Queen—
the crowning of Jimmy and Nancy and the Juniors running around as little green Munchkins
June the first a most memorable night—the prom, parties, and the beach but wondering if there will ever be time to go to sleep.

Jim Brown and Nancy Morris reign as King and Queen of the Prom.

Seniors enjoy a rest from dancing to the music of Charlie McClendon and the Magnificents at “Emerald Reflections.”

Senior Class June 16 Brings Both Smiles And Tears To

Sally Via, Class President, gives her farewell address to the Class of 1968.

An unbearably hot day—a Sunday
four o'clock
two hundred ninety-three Seniors
file in as “Pomp and Circumstance” fills the gymnasium—
with not an empty seat to be seen
Graduation—
June sixteenth
nineteen hundred sixty-eight a group of droopy faces watch
as the Seniors receive their diplomas
an air of happiness
pervades
with a touch of sadness for the Seniors
the spectrum of Ferguson ended
we hope only that their light will continue to be felt.

Honored guests, Class President, Sally Via; Salutatorian, Loyd Rawls; and Valedictorian, Sylvia Lotz take their places on the platform during graduation exercises.

The Faces Of 1968's Graduating Seniors

Members of the Class of 1968 assemble for their final class function on June 16.

A smile and a congratulatory wish accompany Allen Little's diploma.

Graduating Seniors listen attentively to both the Valedictory and Salutatory speeches.

JUNIOR OFFICERS—Tim Lietzke, Parliamentarian; Suzanne Conway, Treasurer; Bobby Dabbs, Vice President; Neal Rosenbaum, President; Linda Kane, Secretary; Carol Reeder, Reporter.

Miss Fitzwater, eleventh grade sponsor, smiles as she thinks of her Juniors trying to plan a prom.

Class Of '69 Attains Financial Prosperity

The class of 1968
and 1969 the best year . . .
so far

The strenuous 10:30 Powderpuff practices that all paid off—Juniors winning 19-14.

The Microphonie game and a treasury of $1600.

The excitement of ordering rings and anticipation of the Ring Dance.

Spirit at all the games lasting friendships made, Fun, heartaches, letdowns and despair—

A year that will never be forgotten.

Freshmen Class Sells Christmas Cards

Selling Christmas cards to raise money
and finally being above someone

The Freshman Class—
a year of real projects worked on together
and the feeling of pride in yourself and especially the class.

Climbing up the ladder of leadership, responsibility and maturity
Suddenly everyone is growing up and changing
a new world springs up revealing new emotions, feelings, and perhaps even a new you.

Eighth Grade Leaders Plan Activities For New Year

Little people running around the halls of the school and wandering from classroom to classroom.

A lost eighth grader
a strange new school and a new world.

The thrill of the first pep assembly
and new friends,
chaos at lunchtime,
rushing to classes,
and the mouse assembly.
Good times, bad times,
traditions of Ferguson
and finally

the feeling of acceptance—

John McDaniel Wins Most Valuable Golfer Award

“Par Four!”
the cry goes up
and a little white ball
flies across
the sky—
The Ferguson Golf Team—putting and driving
and wondering if a hole in one is really possible after all.

GYMNASTICS TEAM—First Row: Mrs. Patterson, Mrs. McCutchens, Second Row: Mary Storms, Anita Edge, Leigh Hudgens, Madelyn Miller, Robin Shakesober, Carter Bryant, Karen Taylor, Kilmer Tayler, Third Row: Diane Harris, Linda Hill, Dale Johnson, Andrea Penland, Judy Gallagher, Lynn Cole, JoAnn Miffleton, Debbie Russell.

Gymnastics:

Gymnastic Team Wins State Honors

Routines
on the parallel bars,
the horse and the balance beam
trying advanced
vaults or a new turn on the bars—
Girls' Gymnastics—
participating
in gymnastics meets
all around
and scoring admirable records making a good showing for Ferguson
and for themselves

Robin Shakesober displays one of the many skills which won her the title of most valuable member of the gymnastics team.

GIRLS' VARSITY HOCKEY TEAM—First Row: Susie Peters, Martha Webb, Anne Cowardin, Rhonda Lichenstein, Dale Johnson; Second Row: Mrs. Patterson, Coach; Ginger Woodward, Carolyn Cocke, Angie Ponzo, Brenda Hall, Peggy Montgomery, Marion McInnis, Co-Captain; Sara Redding, Co-Captain; Tina Jones, Mrs. Jenkins, Coach.

Girls' Hockey

Girls' Hockey Team Has Successful Year

The team members raise their sticks to a hopeful victory against Newport News.

Always getting hit
with a stick
or the agony of hearing
"Sticks" and a shrill scream of a whistle
The Girls' Hockey Team—a mass of girls in little blue tunics
chasing a white puck
down the field
shrieks and screams
are heard and a girl
emerges from the crowd and shoots the
puck
through the goal—
another success and many injuries.

GOOD SHIPS START HERE

Fine ships don't roll off a production line. They're built efficiently and well only by men whose skills and knowledge are broad. That's why Newport News begins at the beginning with its own selective Apprentice School.

High School graduates enter on the basis of academic record. But selectivity doesn't stop there. In classroom and shop, in the drafting room and out in the yard, each man's special abilities are watched and developed.

Some become skilled and versatile machinists. Others become expert electricians or precision tool makers. Many become supervisors. Some earn scholarships for advanced training at colleges and technical schools.

We think the School's a pretty inspiring place, because its end results are good men and good ships.

ELECTRICITY: MUSCLE OF INDUSTRY

Behind the great industrial might of America stands a "giant workman" — electric energy. It would require the muscle energy of 70 men working 40 hours a week for one whole year to equal 10,000 kilowatt hours of electricity — less than the average annual consumption of two Vepco residential customers. Yes, electricity is the "muscle" behind our power and prosperity.

Epilogue

As the events of another year come to an end
 and the light emerges
 from the covers of this book, the vibrant, separate waves converge
 to become once again
 a single ray of light—
 a single blur
 of many memories
 Memories
 of hard studying
 of classes
 of football games
 and dances
 The times are gone
 the colors have faded
 from their vibrant intensities to quiet pastels
 The Mariner has closed its covers on another memorable year—but we need not forget the colors of 1968
 We need only to open the covers and relive again
 the wide Spectrum of memories—which shall continue—forever.

Mike, Remember not nostalgically or sadly sardistically or floatingly.
Simply remember -
Best of luck as a debater (in whatever capacity you may choose to use your talent.)
May R.T.I. - R.I.P.!
See you at the N.H.S. Tea at X-MAS -
Love
(Checkmate!)
